

"In a practice of Global Social Witnessing I hear often a 'voice.' I thought that this voice or idea were a kind of expressed imagination in my mental process. Social constructivist would say that this voice is constructed through my experiences and communications. Is it really constructed by me? There are some minorities scientists who say 'No'."

"I think that you, Sperry, belong to these minorities. That is why I invited you to our dialogue! I have two questions for you."

- What is witnessing for you?
- How can you explain this "voice"?

"I have experienced first-hand how simple yet powerful Sperry's approach is and how it can easily be applied across diverse settings and populations, spontaneously enabling insight to arise in a spirit of conscious communication. It facilitates us to move forward, to implement creative solutions, regenerating individual and group intelligence. I wish every person, business, and corporate culture would integrate and implement this work into the everyday hum of workplace culture and personal life. It encourages interactive, energetic, and authentic communication and creativity to emerge effortlessly."

- Richard Miller, PhD. Psychologist, President of the Integrative Restoration Institute

Every single moment in all the countless hours and forty years with thousands of people internationally, I have felt incomparably unique yet absolutely indivisible. People openly admit how unrecognizable they are every single moment, cherishing how comfortable they are with being unknowable. We share one heart, body, mind, soul, and spirit, not as an experience but as what we actually are. Having once fragmented 'my' own awareness into pieces and parts, which were then artificial and insubstantial, I had to realize who-and-what 'I, they, and we' are without dependency on a technique.

"I See You." said James Cameron, through his film Avatar.

With all life, it does seem essential for 'each of us' to cultivate access to our own innate sensitivity - through a commonly sensed consciousness; hopefully sooner, than when it may be too 'late.' Nature has so clearly enabled us to awaken together as one universal intelligence, to share as love itself, as radiant, realized, liberated, enlightened 'entities' who can mutually understand one another through compassion and unconditional love.

Our experience of being 'all that is' together cannot be limited by anyone's ideas for long. We share all 'this' as many, yet there can only ever be 'one of us.' A primal-Void is fundamental to who we all are. It pre-exists all form, time, and space, energy and matter, mind and body. Without effort, it silently 'asks us' to be unimaginable and as intimate as any 'thing' we have ever known - with total strangers or as our 'selves.'

'No one' can hide inside 'their' personal individual 'trip' as there is no 'where' to hide. Life offers each of us and all of us a continuous reunion with our own immortal spirit.

Awakened adepts have said, who we are was never born and cannot die.

Einstein stated: "Observation is independent of spacetime."

While a Void cannot be divided against its 'Self,' it can be (seemingly) divided into discrete, non-dimensional, coordinate locations, and pivotal point-centered processes, giving rise to virtual potentials, fields, and forces that cancel to zero overall, maintaining the Void's integrity as the non-material 'glue' that holds all forms together. Its seamless, incomparably-unique 'witnessing' is a dynamic, observer-driven, omnipresent, all-knowing, all-powerful, eternal 'now.' In this way, "formlessness is form, and form is formlessness" as Zen practitioners traditionally chant.

All dimensionless (0D) point-centered coordinates - in the geometry of three dimensions (3D) - remain non-dimensional at their source of origin. The next higher dimension (4D) is not time (as Einstein thought). 4D indivisibly unites all (virtual) point-centered OD locations in 3D - instantaneously (as a simultaneity) - offering all-life a-way to self/Self-actualize. We are recreating Creation its Self as an ever-expanding infinity of witnesses by (a-causally) causing all forms to undergo transformation, re-united and re-presented trillions of times a second in a placeless place in the groundless ground of y/Our Being.

0D/4D consciousness allows us to evolve according to a 'least action principle.' The still-small voice we hear completes a loop formed by the relative depth of our witnessing.

Attention is one of the most powerful tools we have.
